The Varsity.

ST. JOE 2—LAFAYETTE Y. M. I. 8

MAY 30.

In a seven inning game played at LaFayette the Varsity went down in defeat. The loss of Lill was keenly felt in the game since Sabados did not have time to get into form, but under the conditions he did really better than could be expected. This is the third loss for the season, and since it is impossible to win everything we really have no ground to kick.

ST. JOE 16—LAFAYETTE 1

JUNE 2.

In what promised at first to be an interesting game, the Varsity had an easy victory over the La Fayette Y. M. P. C. Fitzgerald's homer on a hit and an error was the most exciting spectacle of the game. Burkhardt, replaced Sabados in the fourth. This is our second encounter with the Y.M.P.C. and although weather conditions during the first game were anything but favorable, it was certainly pleasant in yesterday's game.

SENIOR LEAGUE.

IMPERIALS 5—CARDINALS 4

June 1.—For the fourth time the Cardinals were overwhelmed by the cyclone of defeat. The absence of the "Cardinals luck" was the cause of their downfall. This shows that science always wins out in the long run.

Eisenhardt's so-called selection of curves proved immaterial to the Imperials. The manager should try a little practice instead of resorting to "luck" for the fickleness of fortune is often disastrous.

The feature of the game was a terrific homerun drive by Endres.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.	E.
Imperials	0	0	1	0	2	0	1	1	0	5	5	6

Batteries: Imperials—Birkmeir & Endres.
Cardinals—Eisenhardt and Dillhoff.

ROYALS 5—LAURELS 1

June 2.—The Laurels were unable to stop the winning streak of the Royals and were defeated 5 to 1. Forsthoefel and Lambert were in good form but Lambert's wild throw lost the game for the Laurels.

Maloney who tossed for the Naps allowed 12 hits for a total of 21 bases. McDonald was touched for 8 hits, total bases 13.

WHITE SOX 5—NAPS 12

May 26.—The White Sox were unable to stop the fast Nap team and lost 5 to 12. The Naps were there with the "big stick" pounding Murray for 12 hits four of which were doubles and one a home run.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.

THE SENIOR LEAGUE.

Eor days the battle between Mellady's and Moran's nine has grown more intense until now the struggle will culminate in the game between these two men. If Mellady comes out on top in this game, the honors of the league go to him, if he is defeated, he stands tied with Moran for first place. And indeed, regardless of the outcome, one cannot help but admire "Pat's" team after the up-hill play they have had. To lose the first fiive games is enough to dishearten a player as a general rule, but Moran payed no attention to this but kept on encouraging his team. The good effects of pursuing this plan instead of knocking are in evidence: the former mighty ones are trembling upon the unstable position they hold, yes some of them have given up all hope and now struggle against the fate of occupying the last place in the league.
